WHITNEY AND SOUTHAM.

St James Fliny Whitney is mad. We mean he is angry-neal angry, and it is the Ottawa Citizen that has aroused his anger. Be is known that, although it is a Tory newspaper and supposed to be a supporter of the honorable gattleman, it is an advocate of the single tan Street of the supporter of the last once much by an intelligent discussion of the subject to bring its within the realm of practical politics. It has taken much interest in the deliberations of the Legislature's committee appointed to investigate the question of assessment, and when it was known that that committee that reported against the adoption of the land or single tax, it, not without some reason, charged Sir James with buildesing the committee to decide against the scheme. It did not mine matters either. It declared that The Contervative party is bigger. spoke right out in meeting. It accesses that "the Conservative party is bigger than any one man in it, and loyalty to it is not necessarily loyalty to may, Big Boss who seeks to domineer. If Sir Jemes refused to reconsider or to have considered such measures as tax reform, considered such measures as tax reform, the rank and file of the party will very soon either refuse to endorse such ob-stinate obstruction or to stay in the soon either refuse to endorse such ob-sinate obstruction or to stay in the party." The Citizen said a lot more of the same kind of stuff, and the Bremise-did not like it the least little bit, and he as ceme out not with a defence of his position, because it is indefensible. Southam, the proprietor of the news-paper in question. It is a personal stack, and illustrates very clearly the mental attitude of the Premier on this are question. BAKING POWDER ABSOLUTELY PURE

Cooking is a matter which concerns the whole family, and under modern methods and conveniences it is made so attractive the whole family is becoming interested, if not taking part in it.

"These biscuits are delicious; this cake is excellent," says the father. "I made them," says the daughter, and both father and daughter beam with pleasure.

It is a crime, with our modern agencies, helps and facilities, to have soggy biscuit, or wooden cake, or leaden pastry.

Royal Baking Powder has made home baking a success, a pleasure and a profit, and the best cooking today the world over is done with its aid.

each day, in the secon edition, issued at 3.65 From a financial viewpoint, the Board of Works is making good this year. Its expenditures to dake are S07568.38, over 811,000 less than its appropriation, and there is no doubt that it will end up the year with a substantial surplus. Here are the various accounts, under the surpervision of the Works Committee, of which Ald. Milne is chalkman. LIVERPOOL MARKETS
